

I want to express my concern about various banks that are requesting an exception to the Do Not Call law in Indiana. If I want to conduct bank business, I will initiate the contact, as I do with any other form of commerce. I do not appreciate receiving unwanted and unsolicited calls. Please support the rights of the individuals who have subscribed to the do not call list rather than the banks.